2022 Request to Take Regents Examination(s) at Cornell

To all New York State High School Students:

Occasionally Precollege Studies and New York State Regents Examination dates conflict, which is the case this year with our programs beginning in June. As in past years, we have developed accommodations for you to take your Regents exam(s) at Cornell. To put these arrangements in place for you, you must complete the form below and return it to us no later than Friday, May 13. Space will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. We cannot accept forms after the deadline. If you have been approved for an accommodation for your Regents exam(s) under Section 504 Plan or IDEA, your principal or director of guidance must state this below and describe the specific accommodation on an attached sheet of paper.

Information about taking your Regents exam(s) at Cornell:

- Regents exams will be given during the week of June 21 on the Cornell campus.
- Precollege Studies will let your professors know when you are scheduled to take your Regents exam and that they should excuse you from class at that time. It is your responsibility to make up any missed classwork.
- To be admitted to the exam you must bring a photo ID. This may be the Cornell ID you'll receive when you arrive at Cornell or any other photo ID with your name on it.
- You must bring any appropriate tools, such as a calculator, ruler, and protractor with you to the exam.
